

Our thermal imaging camera has been utilised, not quite yet for a night macropod rescue, but has been used for sighting tawny frogmouth parents for chick reuniting at night and the rescue of an injured barn owl that had been hit by a car at and disappeared into bush-land. Photo attached.

Once again, Tweed Valley Wildlife Carers would like to thank NWC for their generosity in providing grants

March 2025